

CCAC Performance Rating Definitions

Meets expectations:

Indicates performance that routinely meets high performance standards in all areas of responsibility and may occasionally exceed requirements of the position in terms of quality and quantity of work produced.

Does not meet expectations:

This performance does not fully meet job requirements in all areas of major responsibility. The individual may demonstrate the ability to complete some assignments; however, the need for further development and improvement is clearly recognized.