A WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

California College of the Arts is located in the San Francisco Bay Area, a region known worldwide for creativity, innovation, entrepreneurship, and social justice initiatives. CCA welcomes students who believe that creative work can positively and powerfully affect our world, and who want to make art that matters.

Our 21 undergraduate programs attract a widely diverse student body. Nearly half of our 1,500 undergraduates transfer from a community college or another four-year institution. While at CCA, they discover cross-disciplinary opportunities, innovative courses with real-world applications, outstanding faculty, successful alumni, and a world-class campus environment.

Whatever you are interested in—starting an experimental film project, making art that focuses on issues of identity, designing an environmentally friendly product, or working with a community organization—CCA offers an ideal environment to make it happen. You will be developing competencies that will serve you well, both while you are a student and long after you graduate. Our alumni have been successful in all kinds of creative endeavors. Visit cca.edu/alumni/featured for stories about alumni making noteworthy contributions in their respective fields and communities.

VISIT CCA

Visiting CCA is a great way to learn about the college. Preview Day is hosted by CCA every October. Throughout the year, campus tours take place Monday through Friday, at 10 a.m. on the Oakland campus and 1:30 p.m. on the San Francisco campus. You are welcome any time to make an appointment to talk with an enrollment counselor, either in person or at one of our several virtual information sessions.

For more information on visiting CCA, see cca.edu/admissions/visiting.
PREPARING TO TRANSFER

As you prepare to transfer to CCA, we recommend that you speak with one of our Enrollment Services counselors (cca.edu/admissions/counselors). Planning well ahead will enable you to maximize your transferable units and complete the courses that will best prepare you for entry into CCA. Our staff will work with you to help you navigate the transfer process.

CCA does not have specific transfer course requirements, but we do recommend that you take a balanced load of beginning-level academic and studio courses, such as English Composition, Introduction to Art History, Modern Art History, Beginning Drawing, 2D Design, 3D Design or Sculpture, and Introduction to Digital Media and Film.

Step 3: Investigate your major. CCA offers 21 undergraduate programs in the areas of art, architecture, design, and writing. Visit cca.edu/academics/programs to read about each major, its curriculum, and its faculty, and to view student work from the program. The program web pages will be an invaluable resource as you plan your transfer and decide which major best fits your educational goals.

Step 4: Apply to CCA. February 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the fall. March 1 is the application deadline for all other students entering in the fall. October 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the spring. Completed applications must include the following:

- Application ($60 application fee required)
- Personal essay
- Transcripts (from all colleges attended; 30 credits are recommended)
- Two letters of recommendation
- Portfolio

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for transfer students, see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/transfer.

FINANCIAL AID

CCA will partner with you and your family to ensure that you achieve your goals. Our financial aid program is designed to help make CCA more affordable, so all students can reach their creative potential.

In 2011–12 the college awarded more than $19 million in college-funded scholarships and more than $34 million in combined scholarships, grants, loans, and employment. More than 78 percent of CCA’s students receive college-funded merit and need-based scholarships.

FACTOR HONORS AWARD

This competition is open to all direct college-transfer applicants who are seeking their first bachelor’s degree and plan to begin their studies at CCA in the fall semester. Three renewable awards, which amount up to $10,000 annually, are based on a student’s academic achievement and creative ability. To be considered, you must complete all admissions application requirements by February 1. There is no separate scholarship application.

DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

Every fall, diversity scholarships are offered to qualified entering transfer students who demonstrate financial need and bring diverse experiences, ideas, and creative work to the CCA community. Students from educationally disadvantaged families who have demonstrated academic and artistic achievement, students who have demonstrated leadership in service to their communities, and students whose work focuses on social or cultural issues will be considered for these awards. In combination with other CCA scholarships and federal and state grants, total amounts may equal the cost of tuition. To be considered, you must complete all admissions and financial aid requirements as well as the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by February 1.

For more information about financial aid, please visit cca.edu/financialaid.

DETERMINING TRANSFER CREDIT

Following an offer of admission, CCA will make available to you online an evaluation of your transfer credits. You must submit all official transcripts from other schools you have attended. Academic credits from regionally accredited institutions are usually transferable to CCA if you received a grade of C or better and if they fulfill requirements for the BA, BFA, or BArch.

Transfer credit for studio courses is based on a portfolio review and corresponding transferable coursework. If you have 12 units of studio coursework, you may be waived from CCA’s core studio requirements (Drawing I, 2D, 3D, 4D). If CCA has an established studio transfer articulation agreement with your school, the portfolio review may be waived for specific courses. Studio units that do not meet CCA studio requirements may serve as studio elective units.

For more information about transfer credits see cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/credit.

PURSUING A SECOND DEGREE

CCA welcomes applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree. Seeking a second undergraduate degree offers the opportunity to pursue an arts-focused education while using previous college work to receive transfer credit.

BFA, BA, and BArch applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university will receive transfer credit for all of the CCA humanities and sciences requirements except for the 15 to 18 units of visual studies, and (if applicable) math and physics for architecture. These are considered on a course-by-course basis.

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for second-degree students, please see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/second-degree.
A WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

California College of the Arts is located in the San Francisco Bay Area, a region known worldwide for creativity, innovation, entrepreneurship, and social justice initiatives. CCA welcomes students who believe that creative work can positively and powerfully affect our world, and who want to make art that matters.

Our 21 undergraduate programs attract a widely diverse student body. Nearly half of our 1,500 undergraduates transfer from a community college or another four-year institution. While at CCA, they discover cross-disciplinary opportunities, innovative courses with real-world applications, outstanding faculty, successful alumni, and a world-class campus environment.

Whatever you are interested in—starting an experimental film project, making art that focuses on issues of identity, designing an environmentally friendly product, or working with a community organization—CCA offers an ideal environment to make it happen. You will be developing competencies that will serve you well, both while you are a student and long after you graduate. Our alumni have been successful in all kinds of creative endeavors. Visit cca.edu/alumni/featured for stories about alumni making noteworthy contributions in their respective fields and communities.

VISIT CCA

Visiting CCA is a great way to learn about the college. Preview Day is hosted by CCA every October. Throughout the year, campus tours take place Monday through Friday at 10 a.m. on the Oakland campus and 1:30 p.m. on the San Francisco campus. You are welcome any time to make an appointment to talk with an enrollment counselor, either in person or at one of our several virtual information sessions.

For more information on visiting CCA, see cca.edu/admissions/visiting.

CALIFORNIA COLLEGE OF THE ARTS TRANSFER GUIDE

California College of the Arts

San Francisco
1111 Eighth Street
San Francisco, CA 94103-2247
510-226-2000
cca.edu

Oakland
5212 Broadway
Oakland, CA 94618-1426
1.800.447.1ART
cca.edu/admissions
PREPARING TO TRANSFER

As you prepare to transfer to CCA, we recommend that you speak with one of our Enrollment Services counselors (cca.edu/admissions/counselors). Planning well ahead will enable you to maximize your transferable units and complete the courses that will best prepare you for entry into CCA. Our staff will work with you to help you navigate the transfer process.

CCA does not have specific transfer course requirements, but we do recommend that you take a balanced load of beginning-level academic and studio courses, such as English Composition, Introduction to Art History, Modern Art History, Beginning Drawing, 2D Design, 3D Design or Sculpture, and Introduction to Digital Media and Film.

Step 3: Familiarize yourself with your academic standing. Take some time to review your transcripts from the colleges you have attended. CCA will consider both your individual courses and your cumulative grade point average (GPA) when reviewing your application. (CCA is on the semester system and will calculate the GPA as semester units.)

Step 4: Apply to CCA. February 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the fall who wish to be considered for scholarships. March 1 is the application deadline for all other students entering in the fall. October 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the spring. Completed applications must include the following:

- Application ($60 application fee required)
- Personal essay
- Transcripts (from all colleges attended; students with fewer than 30 units must submit a high school transcript or GED)
- Two letters of recommendation
- Portfolio

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for transfer students, see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/transfer.

FINANCIAL AID

CCA will partner with you and your family to ensure that you achieve your goals. Our financial aid program is designed to help make CCA more affordable, so all students can reach their creative potential.

In 2011–12 the college awarded more than $19 million in college-funded scholarships and more than $34 million in combined scholarships, grants, loans, and employment. More than 78 percent of CCA’s students receive college-funded merit and need-based scholarships.

FACULTY HONORS AWARD

This competition is open to all direct college-transfer applicants who are seeking their first bachelor’s degree and plan to begin their studies at CCA in the fall semester. These renewable awards, which amount up to $10,000 annually, are based on a student’s academic achievement and creative ability. To be considered, you must complete all admissions application requirements by February 1. There is no separate scholarship application.

DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

Every fall, diversity scholarships are offered to qualified entering transfer students who demonstrate financial need and bring diverse experiences, ideas, and creative work to the CCA community. Students from educationally disadvantaged families who have demonstrated academic and artistic achievement, students who have demonstrated leadership in service to their communities, and students whose work focuses on social or cultural issues will be considered for these awards. In combination with other CCA scholarships and federal and state grants, total amounts may equal the cost of tuition. To be considered, you must complete all admission and financial aid requirements as well as the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by February 1.

For more information about financial aid, please visit cca.edu/financialaid.

DETERMINING TRANSFER CREDIT

Following an offer of admission, CCA will make available to you online an evaluation of your transfer credits. You must submit all official transcripts from other schools you have attended. Academic credits from regionally accredited institutions are usually transferable to CCA if you received a grade of C or better and if they fulfill requirements for the BA, BFA, or BArch.

Transfer credit for studio courses is based on a portfolio review and corresponding transferable coursework. If you have 32 units of studio coursework, you may be waived from CCA’s core studio requirements (Drawing 1, 2D, 3D, 4D). If CCA has an established studio transfer articulation agreement with your school, the portfolio review may be waived.

For more information about transfer credits see cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/credit.

PURSUING A SECOND DEGREE

CCA welcomes applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree. Seeking a second undergraduate degree affords the opportunity to pursue an arts-focused education while using previous college work to receive transfer credit.

BFA, BA, and BArch applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university will receive transfer credit for all of the CCA humanities and sciences requirements except for the 15 to 18 units of visual studies, and (if applicable) math and physics for architecture. These are considered on a course-by-course basis.

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for second-degree students, please see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/second-degree.

Step 2: Assess your transfer credits. California community college students can use the ASSIST website (assist.org) in conjunction with CCA’s CSU Breadth Chart or Inter-segmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) for humanities and sciences course equivalencies. We also have articulation agreements with several community colleges across the country (cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/articulation).

Step 1: Investigate your major. CCA offers 21 undergraduate programs in the areas of art, architecture, design, and writing. Visit cca.edu/academics/programs to read about each major, its curriculum, and its faculty, and to view student work from the program. The program web pages will be an invaluable resource as you plan your transfer and decide which major best fits your educational goals.

Step 5: Familiarize yourself with your academic standing. Take some time to review your transcripts from the colleges you have attended. CCA will consider both your individual courses and your cumulative grade point average (GPA) when reviewing your application. (CCA is on the semester system and will calculate the GPA as semester units.)

Step 6: Apply to CCA. February 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the fall who wish to be considered for scholarships. March 1 is the application deadline for all other students entering in the fall. October 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the spring. Completed applications must include the following:

- Application ($60 application fee required)
- Personal essay
- Transcripts (from all colleges attended; students with fewer than 30 units must submit a high school transcript or GED)
- Two letters of recommendation
- Portfolio

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for transfer students, see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/transfer.

DETERMINING TRANSFER CREDIT

Following an offer of admission, CCA will make available to you online an evaluation of your transfer credits. You must submit all official transcripts from other schools you have attended. Academic credits from regionally accredited institutions are usually transferable to CCA if you received a grade of C or better and if they fulfill requirements for the BA, BFA, or BArch.

Transfer credit for studio courses is based on a portfolio review and corresponding transferable coursework. If you have 32 units of studio coursework, you may be waived from CCA’s core studio requirements (Drawing 1, 2D, 3D, 4D). If CCA has an established studio transfer articulation agreement with your school, the portfolio review may be waived.

For more information about transfer credits see cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/credit.

PURSUING A SECOND DEGREE

CCA welcomes applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree. Seeking a second undergraduate degree affords the opportunity to pursue an arts-focused education while using previous college work to receive transfer credit.

BFA, BA, and BArch applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university will receive transfer credit for all of the CCA humanities and sciences requirements except for the 15 to 18 units of visual studies, and (if applicable) math and physics for architecture. These are considered on a course-by-course basis.

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for second-degree students, please see our viewbook or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/second-degree.
PREPARING TO TRANSFER
As you prepare to transfer to CCA, we recommend that you speak with one of our Enrollment Services counselors (cca.edu/admissions/counselors). Planning well ahead will enable you to maximize your transferable units and complete the courses that will best prepare you for entry into CCA. Our staff will work with you to help you navigate the transfer process.

CCA does not have specific transfer course requirements, but we do recommend that you take a balanced load of beginning-level academic and studio courses, such as English Composition, Introduction to Art History, Modern Art History, Beginning Drawing, 2D Design, 3D Design, and Sculpture, and Introduction to Digital Media and Film.

Step 1: Familiarize yourself with your academic standing. Take some time to review your transcripts from the colleges you have attended. CCA will consider both your individual courses and your cumulative grade point average (GPA) when reviewing your application. (CCA is on the semester system and will calculate the GPA as semester units.)

Step 2: Assess your transfer credits. California community college students can use the ASSIST website (assist.dично.edu) in conjunction with CCA’s CSU Breadth Chart or Inter-segmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) (cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/credit) for humanities and sciences course equivalencies. We also have articulation agreements with several community colleges across the country (cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/articulation).

Step 3: Investigate your major. CCA offers 21 undergraduate programs in the areas of art, architecture, design, and writing. Visit cca.edu/academics/programs to read about each major, its curriculum, and its faculty, and to view student work from the program. The program web pages will be an invaluable resource as you plan your transfer and decide which major best fits your educational goals.

Step 4: Apply to CCA. February 1 is the application deadline for all other students entering in the fall. March 1 is the application deadline for all other students entering in the fall. October 1 is the application deadline for students entering in the spring. Completed applications must include the following:
- Application ($60 application fee required)
- Personal essay
- Transcripts (from all colleges attended; students with fewer than 30 units must submit a high school transcript or GED)
- Two letters of recommendation
- Portfolio

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for transfer students, see our website or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/transfer.

FINANCIAL AID
CCA will partner with you and your family to ensure that you achieve your goals. Our financial aid program is designed to help make CCA more affordable, so all students can reach their creative potential.

In 2011-12 the college awarded more than $31 million in college-funded scholarships and more than $34 million in combined scholarships, grants, loans, and employment. More than 76 percent of CCA’s students receive college-funded merit and need-based scholarships.

FACTOR HONORS AWARD
This competition is open to all direct college-transfer applicants who are seeking their first bachelor’s degree and plan to begin their studies at CCA in the fall semester. These renewable awards, which amount up to $10,000 annually, are based on a student’s academic achievement and creative ability. To be considered, you must complete all admissions application requirements by February 1. There is no separate scholarship application.

DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP
Every fall, diversity scholarships are offered to qualified entering transfer students who demonstrate financial need and bring diverse experiences, ideas, and creative work to the CCA community. Students from educationally disadvantaged families who have demonstrated academic and artistic achievement, students who have demonstrated leadership in service to their communities, and students whose work focuses on social or cultural issues will be considered for these awards. In combination with other CCA scholarships and federal and state grants, total amounts may equal the cost of tuition. To be considered, you must complete all admission and financial aid requirements as well as the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by February 1.

For more information about financial aid, please visit cca.edu/financialaid.

DETERMINING TRANSFER CREDIT
Following an offer of admission, CCA will make available to you online an evaluation of your transfer credits. You must submit all official transcripts from other schools you have attended. Academic credits from regionally accredited institutions are usually transferable to CCA if you received a grade of C or better and if they fulfill requirements for the BA, BFA, or BArch.

Transfer credit for studio courses is based on a portfolio review and corresponding transferable coursework. If you have 32 units of studio coursework, you may be waived from CCA’s core studio requirements (Drawing 1, 2D, 3D, 4D). If CCA has an established studio transfer articulation agreement with your school, the portfolio review may be waived for specific courses. Studio units that do not meet CCA studio requirements may serve as studio elective units.

For more information about transfer credits see cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/credit.

PURSUING A SECOND DEGREE
CCA welcomes applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree. Seeking a second undergraduate degree affords the opportunity to pursue an arts-focused education while using previous college work to receive transfer credit.

BFA, BA, and BArch applicants who already have a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university will receive transfer credit for all of the CCA humanities and sciences requirements except for the 15 to 18 units of visual studies and, if applicable, math and physics for architecture. These are considered on a course-by-course basis.

For detailed information about application and portfolio requirements for second-degree students, please see our website or cca.edu/admissions/undergrad/second-degree.
A WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

California College of the Arts is located in the San Francisco Bay Area, a region known worldwide for creativity, innovation, entrepreneurship, and social justice initiatives. CCA welcomes students who believe that creative work can positively and powerfully affect our world, and who want to make art that matters.

Our 21 undergraduate programs attract a widely diverse student body. Nearly half of our 1,500 undergraduates transfer from a community college or another four-year institution. While at CCA, they discover cross-disciplinary opportunities, innovative courses with real-world applications, outstanding faculty, successful alumni, and a world-class campus environment.

Whatever you are interested in—starting an experimental film project, making art that focuses on issues of identity, designing an environmentally friendly product, or working with a community organization—CCA offers an ideal environment to make it happen. You will be developing competencies that will serve you well, both while you are a student and long after you graduate. Our alumni have been successful in all kinds of creative endeavors. Visit cca.edu/alumni/featured for stories about alumni making noteworthy contributions in their respective fields and communities.

VISIT CCA

Visiting CCA is a great way to learn about the college. Preview Day is hosted by CCA every October. Throughout the year, campus tours take place Monday through Friday at 10 a.m. on the Oakland campus and 1:30 p.m. on the San Francisco campus. You are welcome any time to make an appointment to talk with an enrollment counselor, either in person or at one of our several virtual information sessions.

For more information on visiting CCA, see cca.edu/admissions/visiting.